Student Experiences and Educational Outcomes in Community Engagement for the 21st Century

Part of the Advances in Educational Marketing, Administration, and Leadership Book Series

Cathryn Crosby (Teachers College Colombia University, USA) and Frederick Brockmeier (Northern Kentucky University, USA)

Description:

Today’s students face the challenge of finding a career and a passion while facing economic uncertainty. Service learning has the potential to challenge and inspire students as they hone their skills. An increasingly popular subject, service and experiential learning are changing the way education is taught worldwide.

Student Experiences and Educational Outcomes in Community Engagement for the 21st Century collects and analyzes students’ experiences in diverse service-learning contexts, giving fodder for rethinking strategies and finding optimal pedagogies for successful community engagement.

Readers:

This unique publication is ideal for educators, administrators, policy makers, and students of education.
