Student Experiences and Educational Outcomes in Community Engagement for the 21st Century

Table of Contents

Preface
Acknowledgment

Section 1: Community Engagement Collaborations across Curricula and Contexts

Chapter 1
Impact of Community Engagement in Higher Education
Michelle Huddleston, Tennessee Technological University, USA

Chapter 2
Experiential Learning, Service Learning and Engagement in a University ESL Setting: The Graduate Cohort Program
Michael Fields, University of Delaware English Language Institute, USA

Chapter 3
“It Depends on the Type of Program”: Student Perceptions of Service-Learning
Tim Micek, Ohio Dominican University, Judith Monseur, Antioch University Midwest, USA

Chapter 4
Community Service-Learning: Recruiting and Retaining Psychology Majors for Service in Low-Income Communities
Tomesha Manora Farris, Denise Ross, Brandi Fontenot, Gaige Johnson, Margaret Uwayo, and Garrett D Warrilow, Western Michigan University, USA

Chapter 5
Service-Learning in Action: Students, Inmates and a Storybook Project
Lindsay Blumer, Ripon College, USA

Section 2: Community Engagement Online

Chapter 6
E-Service Learning in Virtual Teamwork
Melody Rawlings and Megan Downing, Northern Kentucky University, USA
Chapter 7
Service Learning Online: Preparing Distant Learners to Work in Global Societies with E-Service Learning

Rick Brockmeier, Northern Kentucky University, USA

Section 3: Further Considerations

Chapter 8
Service Learning for the Community College Student

Roch Turner, Bitterroot College - University of Montana, USA

Chapter 9
Supporting Graduate Students to Implement Community-Engaged Research

Audrey Faye Falk and Brittany Vine, Merrimack College, USA

Chapter 10
Challenges of Practicing and Honing Leadership Skills through Cross-Cultural Service Learning

Jeff Zimmerman, Northern Kentucky University, USA

Chapter 11
Deepening of Critical Thinking Skills Through the Use of Civic Engagement

Marcia Hunter, Southwest Tennessee University, USA