Nationalism, Cultural Indoctrination, and Economic Prosperity in the Digital Age

Series: Advances in Religious and Cultural Studies

Editor(s): Bryan Christiansen (PryMarke, LLC, USA) and Joyce Koeman (University of Leuven, Belgium)

Description:
With a background of technological and communication innovations, socialization research, particularly as it refers to cultural and academic learning, has become increasingly connected with the business and economic aspects of global societies.

Nationalism, Cultural Indoctrination, and Economic Prosperity in the Digital Age examines the doctrines that society is expected not to question, particularly the influence these beliefs have on business and the prosperity of the world as a whole. This book is an essential resource for those who need a multidisciplinary approach to the effects of culture on cognitive strategies and professional methodologies.

Readers:
This publication will be useful for business executives, scholar-practitioners, and students who need a multidisciplinary approach to the effects of culture on cognitive strategies and professional methodologies.
