International Cross-Listing of Chinese Firms

Part of the Research Essentials Collection

Lixian Liu
(University of Canberra, Australia)

While many nations are still struggling from the global financial crisis and regaining their financial security, investors are considering alternative options for investing their money; and the secure financial sector is China appears as a viable option.

International Cross-Listing of Chinese Firms examines the successful techniques and strategies that Chinese companies are using within their financial practices. It highlights the foreign-based multinational enterprise theories related to the major international stock markets. By providing the latest theories and research, this book will be beneficial for business practitioners, researchers, and managers interested in the relationship between cross-listing and firm valuation of Chinese firms.

Topics Covered:
- China's Stock Market History
- Corporate Governance and Legal Bonding
- Cross-Listing
- Informed Trading
- Measurement of Firm Performance
- Multiple Listings

Print: US $165.00 | Perpetual: US $250.00 | Print + Perpetual: US $330.00

Pre-pub Discount:*
Print: US $155.00 | Perpetual: US $240.00
* Pre-pub price is good through one month after publication date.

Market: This premier publication is essential for all academic and research library reference collections. It is a crucial tool for academicians, researchers, and practitioners. Ideal for classroom use.

Dr Lixian Liu is an Assistant Professor of Finance at the University of Canberra, Australia. She commenced her first academic appointment at the Australia National University in 2009, briefly teaching in the University of South Australia in 2010, completing PhD in economics and finance at RMIT University in Australia 2011. Her research interests are international cross-listing, corporate governance, efficiency of the financial sectors.