Mehmet Zahid Sobaci (University of Uludag, Turkey)

Concepts such as e-voting, e-democracy, e-participation, online campaigning, and e-parliament are the most powerful proof of the use of ICTs in political activities, processes, and institutions.

E-Parliament and ICT-Based Legislation: Concept, Experiences and Lessons presents a conceptual framework regarding e-parliament and analyzes the impacts of ICTs on the structure of parliament, its functions, relations with other actors, and the legislative process. As a result of the means and opportunities created by ICTs, parliaments have had a chance to simplify and integrate their administrative processes and involve citizens in legislative processes. This book reflects on new understandings, developments, and practices in parliaments within the framework of ICT usage.

Topics Covered:

- Characterizing Legislative Websites
- Citizen Participation
- Communication and Documentation on Parliamentary Websites
- Connecting Citizens to the European Parliament
- E-Parliament Services
- E-Participation Mechanisms
- Parliamentary Websites in Developing Countries
- Parliamentary Websites in the Budget Process
- Strengthening Parliaments through ICT
- Worldwide Diffusion of E-Parliament
