Computer-Assisted Language Learning and Teaching (IJCALLT)

ISSN: 2155-7098; EISSN: 2155-7101
Established 2011; Published Quarterly

Editor(s)-in-Chief: Bin Zou (Xi’an Jiaotong-Liverpool University, China)

IJCALLT serves as a forum for researchers, practitioners, and education professionals to share their ideas, experience, and knowledge in combining computer technology with language teaching and learning. Due to the fast pace of technological change, innovative teaching approaches and strategies should be developed in order to successfully integrate new technologies into language teaching. This journal provides opportunities to evaluate, improve, and apply such strategies in the fields of CALL and foreign/second language learning.

Topics Covered:

• CALL and second language acquisition
• Computer games in language learning and teaching
• Corpora
• Courseware design
• Distance language education
• Evaluation of CALL program
• Intelligence in CALL
• Language testing in CALL environments
• Mobile learning and teaching
• Monitoring and assessment in online collaborative learning
• Multimedia language learning and teaching
• Research methodology in CALL
• Social networking in language learning and teaching
• Software programs for language learning and teaching
• Teacher education
• Teaching approaches in the CALL context
