In recent years, distance education programs have grown to allow greater educational opportunities to a diverse set of learners from all over the world. As remote learning becomes a widespread practice, universities too must adapt to this changing educational landscape.

Critical Examinations of Distance Education Transformation across Disciplines provides an interdisciplinary look at the development of distance learning in higher education. This reference work bridges the gap between disciplines by offering practical tools and solutions for successful distance education implementation. Educators, administrators, and researchers across academia will find this publication a timely and relevant resource.

Topics Covered:
- Connected Learning
- Document Analysis
- Higher Education
- Historical Analysis
- Interdisciplinary Education
- International Studies
- Online Learning
- Social Media
- Student Engagement

Market: This premier publication is essential for all academic and research library reference collections. It is a crucial tool for academicians, researchers, and practitioners. Ideal for classroom use.

Abigail Scheg is an Assistant Professor of English at Elizabeth City State University in North Carolina. She is also an adjunct dissertation chair for Northcentral University. Dr. Scheg researches, conferences, and publishes in the areas of first-year composition, social media, online pedagogy, and popular culture. Her first book, Reforming Teacher Education with Online Pedagogy Development, was published in January 2014.
Enclosed is check payable to IGI Global in US Dollars, drawn on a US-based bank.

- Credit Card
- Mastercard
- Visa
- Am. Express

3 or 4 Digit Security Code: ____________________________

Name on Card: _______________________________________

Account #: __________________________________________

Expiration Date: ________________________________

Order Your Copy Today!

An Excellent Addition to Your Library!