Collaboration and Student Engagement in Design Education

Table of Contents

Foreword
Preface
Acknowledgment

Section 1
Teaching Collaboration
Team Building & the Andragogy of Teamwork in Design

Chapter 1
Teaching Teamwork in Design: A framework for understanding effectiveness in student teams
Richard Tucker, Deakin University, Australia

Chapter 2
Using a Value Cycle Framework to Analyze Teamwork Capability as a Learning Outcome in Interior Design Studio Courses
Paola Gavilanez, Kwantlen Polytechnic University, Canada
Amber Ortlieb, Kwantlen Polytechnic University, Canada
Thomas Carey, Kwantlen Polytechnic University, Canada

Chapter 3
Cognitive Challenges for Teamwork in Design
Ju Hyun Lee, The University of Newcastle, Australia
Michael J Ostwald, The University of Newcastle, Australia
Ning Gu, The University of Newcastle, Australia

Chapter 4
Prejudicial Evaluation: Bias in self-and-peer-assessments of teamwork contributions to design
Richard Tucker, Deakin University, Australia

Chapter 5
Conflict Resolution in Student Teams: An exploration in the context of design education
Neda Abbasi, Deakin University, Geelong, Australia
Anthony Mills, Deakin University, Geelong, Australia
Richard Tucker, Deakin University, Geelong, Australia

Section 2
Evaluating Collaboration
Teaching Case Studies

Chapter 6
Perceptions of Collaboration Amongst Novice Design Students
Philip Crowther, Queensland University of Technology, Australia
Andrew Scott, Queensland University of Technology, Australia
Tom Allen, Queensland University of Technology, Australia

Chapter 7
Chapter 8
Levering critical collaboration: The First Year Interdisciplinary Design Experience
Alexandra Lara Crosby, University of Technology Sydney, Australia
Adam C Morgan, University of Technology Sydney, Australia

Chapter 9
Informal Networked Learning as Teamwork in Design Studio - CmyView: Using mobile digital technologies to connect with student’s everyday experiences
Cristina Garduño Freeman, Deakin University, Geelong, Australia

Chapter 10
Learning Design Through Facilitating Collaborative Design: Incorporating service learning into a first year undergraduate design degree course
Oliver Bown, UNSW Art & Design, Australia
Philip Gough, Design Lab, University of Sydney, Australia
Martin Tomitsch, Design Lab, University of Sydney, Australia

Chapter 11
Intercultural Dialogue Through Design (iDiDe): A model of intercultural collaboration and student engagement
Susan Ang, Deakin University, Geelong, Australia

Chapter 12
Collaborative Spectra - Mille Feuille Design Workshop: Teaching individuals design through group work
Ammon Beyerle, Here Studio & The University of Melbourne, Australia
Greg Missingham, The University of Melbourne, Australia

Chapter 13
Embracing Non-Traditional Partnerships in Design Education: Breaking down myths and stereotypes
Traci Rose Rider, North Carolina State University, United States
Elizabeth Bowen, North Carolina State University, United States

Section 3
Preparing for Collaboration
Learning for Teamwork in Professional Practice

Chapter 14
Group work and the Externally-Oriented Capstone: Opening students to the challenges of professional practice
Nicole Wragg, Swinburne University of Technology, Australia
Carolyn Barnes, Swinburne University of Technology, Australia

Chapter 15
Identity Transformation through Collaboration: Narratives of ‘Becoming an Architect’