Acknowledgment

To make this book a reality, many persons contributed with their best skills and efforts. First of all, we would like to thank all the authors of chapter proposals, rejected chapters, and accepted chapters for collaborating with us and for the enthusiasm that they put in this project. Without their contribution, this book would not be now in your hands.

We would like also to acknowledge the superb work produced by our reviewers. All submitted full chapters were reviewed by 2 or 3 reviewers, who generally were able to produce very impressive comments that were a fundamental source for the authors to greatly improve their chapters.

We are also in debt to Alex Yakovlev for kindly agreeing to prepare a foreword to the book.

We must also extend our gratitude to the persons at IGI Global for their active support, namely Heather Probst in the first period and Christine Bufton during the last phases of the preparation of the book.
