Acknowledgment

We express our deepest acknowledgements to the authors who provided proposals for chapters and invested a lot of effort in writing and revising their chapters. Furthermore, we greatly appreciate the efforts of colleagues all over the world who served as reviewers. Their thorough and thoughtful reviews helped the authors and us to strengthen the quality of the chapters. Our special thanks go to Irena Markiewicz and Dr. Peter Nemec who provided both invaluable feedback and support in all kinds of organizational and technical issues, and to the staff of IGI Global, who guided us through the process of production of this book and supported us in this journey.
