Acknowledgment

I would like to express my gratitude to the many people who saw me through this book, all those who provided support, talked things over, read, wrote, offered comments, allowed me to quote their remarks, and assisted in the editing, proofreading, and design.

I would like to thank Prof. Lawrence Tomei for encouraging me to publish this book. Above all, I want to thank my wife, Florence, and the rest of my family, who supported and encouraged me in spite of all the time it took me away from them. It was a long and difficult journey for them.

Throughout the process of writing this book, many colleagues from various universities have taken time out to contribute chapters and review some chapters. I would like to give a special thanks to them for their contributions to this book.

Thanks to the management at the University of Lagos, Nigeria and Robert Morris University, PA, USA. These two institutions supported me in carrying out this project.

We appreciate the Publisher (IGI) and the Editorial Advisory Board from various institutions around the world for helping in the process of selection and editing.

Last and not least, I apologize for all those who have been with me over the course of the years and whose names I have failed to mention.
