I would like to thank the editorial staff at IGI Global for providing the opportunity to create this volume. It was very much a learning experience for me, and they made the process a smooth and supportive one. I am glad they appreciate the importance of addressing Higher Education Policy and Practice on a regional basis. I express my deep sense of gratitude and thank all of them at IGI Global.

In addition, the contributors and the reviewers of the chapters provided the opportunity to compile a resource that I think will benefit both researchers and practitioners. I would like to express sincere thanks to all the authors for their high quality contributions and reviewers for their effort in providing useful and constructive comments and suggestions. The successful completion of this book has been the result of cooperation of many people, including the editorial board members of this book. I would like to express my sincere thanks and gratitude to all of them.

I would also like to thank my family: my husband, Jayant, and especially my daughter, Neha, whose dedication to learning serves as an inspiration for this effort. Hopefully, she will also be a player in the field of higher education in the future. They both constantly show me the value of discovering and applying new knowledge and the opportunities it opens for all.
