Table of Contents

Foreword ............................................................................................................................................. xiv

Preface ................................................................................................................................................ xvi

Acknowledgment .................................................................................................................................. xxi

Section I
What is K-12 Videoconferencing?

Chapter I

Section II
Bringing Providers to the Camera

Chapter II
Taking Videoconferencing to the Next Level: Creating a Model for Museum Virtual Field Trips / Denice Blair Leach, Kristine Morrissey, and Gel Alvarado ................................................................. 20

Chapter III
The Journey into Distance Learning: Test Drives, Roadblocks, and Destinations / Fawn Warner ........................................................................................................................................ 35

Chapter IV
Making the System Work: The Content Provider and Videoconferencing in the K-12 Classroom / Patty Petrey Dees ........................................................................................................... 52

Chapter V
From Concept to Conference: Developing a Distance Learning Lesson Using a Museum/School Collaboration Model / Sharon Vatsky ........................................................................................................ 70
Chapter VI
Are You Having Fun Yet? / Emily Diekemper Hansen

Section III
Bringing Teachers to the Camera

Chapter VII
Use and Perceptions of External Content Providers: A Teacher’s Journey through the Process / Jennifer Hahn

Chapter VIII
Designing, Assessing, and Scaffolding Student Learning in Videoconferences / Harry Grover Tuttle

Chapter IX
Designing and Implementing Collaborative Classroom Videoconferences / Temi Bidjerano and Diane Wilkinson

Section IV
Building and Supporting a System of Videoconferencing

Chapter X
Leading the Art of the Conference: Revolutionizing Schooling through Interactive Videoconferencing / John Falco

Chapter XI
Infrastructure for Videoconferencing / Mohua Bose and Sal DeAngelo

Chapter XII
Policy Issues Regarding the Instructional and Educational Use of Videoconferencing / Joseph Bowman, Felix Fernandez, and Sharon Miller-Vice

Section V
Videoconferencing and Teacher Preparation

Chapter XIII
The Real World Buffalo: Reality TV Comes to a Charter School / Marion Barnett, Kim Truesdell, Melanie Kenyon, and Dennis Mike
Chapter XIV
Virtual Field Trips: Advantages and Disadvantages for Educators and Recommendations for Professional Development / Dean T. Spaulding and Patricia A. Ranney .......................... 191

Chapter XV
Enhancing Teacher Preparation through Videoconferencing Types / Harry Grover Tuttle ............................................................................................................................ 200

Chapter XVI
Videoconferencing: An Alternative to Traditional Professional Development in the K-12 Setting / Leigh A. Mountain ................................................................. 213

Section VI
The Impact of Videoconferencing: Does it Help?

Chapter XVII
The Impact of Multimedia Videoconferencing on Children’s Learning: Positive Outcomes of Use / Dianna L. Newman ................................................................. 227

Chapter XVIII
Point-to-Point Videoconferencing: Impact of Content Providers on the K-12 Classroom / Patricia Barbanell ................................................................. 240

Chapter XIX
Integrating Videoconferencing into the Classroom: A Perspective from Northern Ireland / Marie Martin ................................................................. 253

Section VII
The Future of K-12 Videoconferencing

Chapter XX
Videoconferencing a New Literacy / Stan Silverman ................................................................. 270

Compilation of References ............................................................................................................. 280

About the Contributors .................................................................................................................. 300

Index ............................................................................................................................................ 306