Table of Contents

Preface ........................................................................................................................................... xiii

Acknowledgment ........................................................................................................................... xix

Section 1
Emerging Research on Islamic Marketing in the Global Economy

Chapter 1
Superfluous or Moderation? The Effect of Religious Value on Conspicuous Consumption Behavior for Luxury Products ................................................................. 1
Norhayati Zakaria, Universiti Utara Malaysia, Malaysia
Wan-Nurisma Ayu Wan-Ismail, Universiti Utara Malaysia, Malaysia
Asmat-Nizam Abdul-Talib, Universiti Utara Malaysia, Malaysia

Chapter 2
The Advent of Western-Style Shopping Centres and Changes in Saudi Women’s Purchasing Behaviour ................................................................. 19
Haya Alsubaie, University of New England, Australia
Fredy-Roberto Valenzuela, University of New England, Australia
Sujana Adapa, University of New England, Australia

Chapter 3
Determinants of Saudi Consumers’ Willingness to Participate in Cause-Related Marketing (CRM) Campaigns ......................................................... 42
Sager Alharthi, University of New England, Australia
Fredy-Roberto Valenzuela, University of New England, Australia
Josie Fisher, University of New England, Australia

Chapter 4
Antecedents to Willingness to Boycotts among Malaysian Muslims .......... 70
Asmat-Nizam Abdul-Talib, Universiti Utara Malaysia, Malaysia
Samshul-Amry Abdul-Latif, Universiti Utara Malaysia, Malaysia
Chapter 5
A Rhetoric on Diversity and Marketing Theory: How Does Islam Fit? ........... 107
Noha El-Bassiouny, The German University in Cairo, Egypt

Chapter 6
Halal Food Market and Opportunities for Logistics Sector ......................... 116
Dursun Yener, Independent Researcher, Turkey

Section 2
Emerging Research on Islamic Tourism in the Global Economy

Chapter 7
The Challenges and Opportunities in Addressing the Needs of Middle Eastern Tourists: An Australian Cultural Perspective ......................... 136
Nael M. Sarhan, Hashemite University, Jordan
Adela McMurray, RMIT University, Australia
Foula Kopanidis, RMIT University, Australia

Chapter 8
Halal Branding for Medical Tourism: Case of Indian Hospitals ............... 160
Anita Medhekar, CQUniversity, Australia
Farooq Haq, Canadian University of Dubai, UAE

Chapter 9
Islamic Tourism in India and Pakistan: Opportunities and Challenges ........ 190
Farooq Haq, Canadian University of Dubai, UAE
Anita Medhekar, CQUniversity, Australia

Chapter 10
Factors Determining the Price of Umra Package among Travel Agencies in Kano Metropolis ................................................................. 217
Musa Gambo Kasuwar Kuka, Kano State Polytechnic, Nigeria

Chapter 11
Islamic Tourism in South Africa: An Emerging Market Approach ........... 248
M. Noor Davids, Cape Peninsula University of Technology, South Africa

Compilation of References ........................................................................ 269

About the Contributors ............................................................................. 303

Index ........................................................................................................ 309