Acknowledgment

We would first like to thank all of the authors who worked on chapters for the book. Not all chapters were able to be included and not all authors were able to complete their projects. Even chapters that were not ultimately included, still help advance understanding of these topics.

The support from our colleagues and schools (Green Mountain College and Dom Bosco University) helped make it possible for us to complete a project of this magnitude. We would also like to thank the Green Mountain College undergraduate research assistants: Melody Baumhover, Kristen Friedel, and Monika Ganguly-Kiefner for all of their assistance.

We would like to thank all of the people at IGI Global who have assisted us on this long process.

Finally, none of this would have been possible without the support of our families. Both of us are new parents and had it not been for the support of our wives and toddlers, we could not have done this project.
