Table of Contents

Preface .................................................................................................................................................. xv

Acknowledgment ........................................................................................................................................... xxiii

Section 1

Democratic Theory

Chapter 1
Interactions between the Governed and Their Governments: The Democratic Paradigm.................. 1
Diogo Santos, Federal University of Maranhao, Brazil & Dom Bosco University, Brazil

Chapter 2
Diogo Santos, Federal University of Maranhao, Brazil & Dom Bosco University, Brazil

Chapter 3
Risk Governance and the Role of Digital Communication in Policy Life-Cycle Management .......... 35
Andrea Kő, Corvinus University of Budapest, Hungary
András Gábor, Corvinus University of Budapest, Hungary
Zoltán Szabó, Corvinus University of Budapest, Hungary

Section 2

Case Studies: International Governmental Organizations

Chapter 4
Digital Media, Secrecy, and International Lawmaking ........................................................................ 60
Diliana Stoyanova, University of Helsinki, Finland

Section 3

Case Studies: Europe

Chapter 5
Social Media in the English Legal Context ............................................................................................ 84
Iqbal Mohammed, Middle Temple, UK
Section 4
Case Studies: The Americas

Chapter 6
From Justice That Bites to Justice through Bytes: Towards a More Transparent and Efficient Judicial System in the Rio Negro Province of Argentina ........................................................... 107
  Fernando Barrio, Universidad Nacional de Rio Negro, Argentina
  Alfredo Bozzetti, Judicial Power of Rio Negro, Argentina

Chapter 7
Access to Information: The Best International Practices and the Brazilian Experience ............... 126
  Monica Teresa Sousa, Federal University of Maranhão, Brazil & Dom Bosco University, Brazil
  Leonardo Valles Bento, Federal University of Maranhão, Brazil & Dom Bosco University, Brazil

Chapter 8
The Music That is Here to Stay: New Rules in State-Society Relations in Mexico ...................... 145
  Atzimba Baltazar Macías, Independent Consultant, Mexico

Chapter 9
Freedom of Speech and Assembly in the Digital Age: How the United States Is Struggling with the Digital Revolution ........................................................................................................... 160
  Sam B. Edwards III, Green Mountain College, USA

Chapter 10
Listening to the City: Eleven Years Later—Rebuilding the World Trade Center—New York City—ODR Helps Determine the 9/11 World Trade Center Memorial ........................................ 176
  Jon Linden, Jon Linden Mediations, USA

Chapter 11
Online Resolution and Citizen Empowerment: Property Tax Appeals in North America ............ 200
  Colin Rule, Modria.com, USA
  Mark Wilson, Modria.com, USA

Section 5
Case Studies: Asia

Chapter 12
Information Technology and the Law: The Case of Cambodia .................................................. 224
  Samreth Mammoun, Pannasatra University, Cambodia

Chapter 13
Social Media in China: A Double-Edged Sword ........................................................................ 238
  James Robert Masterson, Morehead State University, USA