World Libraries on the Information Superhighway: Preparing for the Challenges of the New Millennium

Table of Contents

Chapter One
Libraries and the Internet: Policy and Practice in the 21st Century ....................... 1
   Patricia Diamond Fletcher
   University of Maryland Baltimore County, USA

Chapter Two
Building National Collections of Internet Publications ....................................... 6
   Jasmine Cameron and Margaret E. Phillips
   National Library of Australia

Chapter Three
Connectivity, Content and Collaboration: The Canadian .................................... 26
   Susan Haigh
   National Library of Canada

Chapter Four
Deposit Collections of Digital Publications: A Pragmatic Strategy ....................... 43
   for an Analysis
   Jose Luis Borbinha, Fernanda Campos and Fernando Cardoso
   National Library of Portugal

Chapter Five
National Library of Korea: South Korean Government-Run ............................. 63
   Digital Library—RISS and KRIC
   Ook Lee
   Hansung University, Korea
Chapter Six
Trends in Web-Based Services in Academic Libraries ............................................. 80
  Lynn M. Fountain
  Russell Public Library, USA

Chapter Seven
Impact of the Internet on Malaysian Libraries ..................................................... 95
  Diljit Singh
  University of Malaya, Malaysia

Chapter Eight
The University of Queensland Cybrary: A Virtual Library in a Wired University ........ 107
  Janine Schmidt, Jennifer Croud and Deborah Turnbull
  University of Queensland, Australia

Chapter Nine
Towards the People’s Network: UK Developments and the Work of the EARL Consortium ............................................. 125
  Helen Baigent and Chris Moore
  EARL Consortium, London, UK

Chapter Ten
Providing Multilingual Internet Services in the Global Information Environment: WorldLinQ™ Project, Queens Library’s Practices .......... 148
  Xuemao Wang, Malabika Das, Maria V. Sunio and Andrew N. Schlein
  Queens Borough Public Library, NY, USA

Chapter Eleven
An Analysis of Using Expert Systems and Intelligent Agents for the Virtual Library Project at the Naval Surface Warfare Center—
Carderock Division ............................................. 169
  Jay Liebowitz and Monica Adya
  University of Maryland Baltimore County, USA

Chapter Twelve
Librarians as Info Architects: New Roles for Archivists and Reference ........... 189
Librarians in the Digital Environment ............................................. 189
  Paula J. Wolfe
  University of Arizona, USA

            Lori A. Olson
            University of Wyoming, USA
Chapter Thirteen
Subject Access to Quality-Assured World Wide Web Resources: ....................... 202
Strategies for Information Professionals
Robert Newton and David Dixon
Robert Gordon University, Scotland

Chapter Fourteen
Progress and Prospects for Estonian Libraries ................................................... 221
Sirje Virkus
Tallinn Pedagogical University, Estonia

Chapter Fifteen
The Growing Support Crisis in Federal STI ....................................................... 238
R. David Lankes
Syracuse University, USA

Chapter Sixteen
Remote Access: The Development of Information Services and......................... 263
Technology in the Global South
Lucinda R. Zoe
Baruch College, New York, USA

Chapter Seventeen
Libraries on the Information Highway: Issues and Lessons Learned ............... 288
John Carlo Bertot
University at Albany, State University of New York, USA

Author Biography ................................................................................................... 302

Index ..................................................................................................... 308