Table of Contents

Foreword ............................................................................................................................................... xv
Preface ................................................................................................................................................ xvii
Acknowledgment ............................................................................................................................. xxii

Section 1
Theories, Conditions, and Emerging Best Practices

Chapter 1
Social Presence in Culturally Mediated Online Learning Environments ....................................... 1
Vidya Ananthanarayanan, University of the Incarnate Word, USA

Chapter 2
Examining Design Pattern Strategies as a Means to Achieve Social Presence in the Online Classroom ................................................................................................................................. 22
Araminta Matthews, University College – University of Maine System, USA
Robert M. Kitchin Jr., University College – University of Maine System, USA

Chapter 3
Increasing Research Students’ Engagement through Virtual Communities .................................... 50
Maria Limniou, University of Liverpool, UK
Clare Holdcroft, Manchester Metropolitan University, UK
Paul S. Holmes, Manchester Metropolitan University, UK

Chapter 4
Cultural Inclusivity in Online Learning ............................................................................................. 76
Karen L. Milheim, Walden University, USA

Chapter 5
Fostering Interaction and Social Presence through eCollaboration ............................................. 89
Patricia McGee, The University of Texas – San Antonio, USA
Jooyoung Voeller, The University of Texas – San Antonio, USA
Chapter 6
The Value of Social Presence in Developing Student Satisfaction and Learning Outcomes in Online Environments ......................................................... 120
  Michael Marmon, University of North Texas, USA

Chapter 7
Building Social Presence through Engaging Online Instructional Strategies .............................................. 133
  Sara K. Mitchell, Walden University, USA
  MaryFriend Shepard, Walden University, USA

Section 2
Technology and Student-Teacher Interaction

Chapter 8
Bridging the Social and Teaching Presence Gap in Online Learning ................................................. 158
  Bei Zhang, Michigan State University, USA

Chapter 9
Digital Identity, Social Presence Technologies, and Presence Learning .............................................. 183
  Chaka Chaka, Tshwane University of Technology, South Africa

Chapter 10
Pre-Service Teachers Engaging with Twitter as a Professional Online Learning Environment ........... 204
  Narelle Lemon, La Trobe University, Australia

Chapter 11
Leveraging Web 2.0 for Online Learning .............................................................................................. 235
  Prerna Lal, International Management Institute, India

Section 3
Establishing and Supporting Student-Teacher Interaction

Chapter 12
Strategies for Establishing and Sustaining Social Presence in the Online Learning Environment .... 251
  Credence Baker, Tarleton State University, USA
  Sarah Maben, Tarleton State University, USA
  Jennifer Edwards, Tarleton State University, USA

Chapter 13
Technology Readiness and Social Presence in Online Higher Education .......................................... 266
  David R. Abraham, Liberty University, USA

Chapter 14
Creating a Culture of Engagement ....................................................................................................... 302
  Katherine Erdman Becker, South Dakota State University, USA
Chapter 15
Using a Distributed Learning Environment Model to Foster Learner-Educator Interaction .......... 324
Pamela A. Havice, Clemson University, USA
William L. Havice, Clemson University, USA

Chapter 16
Planning, Designing, Implementing, and Managing Social Presence in Online Programs and Online Classes .................................................................................................................. 346
Kartikeya Patel, Sofia University, USA

Chapter 17
The Human Element MOOC ........................................................................................................ 373
Whitney Kilgore, University of North Texas, USA
Patrick R. Lowenthal, Boise State University, USA

Compilation of References ............................................................................................................ 392

About the Contributors ............................................................................................................... 441

Index ........................................................................................................................................ 448