We are grateful to two anonymous reviewers for their helpful guidance and feedback during the review process. We would like to thank Mark de Reuver, Harry Bouwan, Ian MacInnes, Bart Cammaerts, and Matt Ottewill for permission to reprint figures.

In the course of the preparation of this book, we enjoyed many stimulating discussions with our MBA students at the KAIST (Korea Advanced Institute of Science and Technology, Seoul) during summer 2011 and 2012 and with many colleagues working in the field of economics, strategic management, and media management. Warm thanks to Abdelhakim Hammoudi (INRA, France), Robert DeFillippi (Suffolk University, Boston), Grazia Ietto-Gillies (London South Bank University, UK), Jaemin Jung (KAIST, South Korea), Mercedes Medina (Universidad de Navarra, Spain), Paul Murschetz (University of Salzburg, Austria), Benedetta Prario (University of Lugano, Switzerland), Patrick Vonderau (Stockholm University, Sweden). Many thanks to Veronique Deborde (Fondation Telecom, Paris) who encouraged us to participate in an innovative teaching project based on Open Innovation (First).
