Table of Contents

Preface ...................................................................................................................... xvii

Acknowledgment ..................................................................................................... xxv

Section 1
Foundational Issues: Theoretical Issues and Models

Chapter 1
Can Management Have Multi-Fiduciary Stakeholder Obligations? ................................. 1
_Abe Zakhem, Seton Hall University, USA_

Chapter 2
Business Ethics in the Information Age: The Transformations and Challenges of E-Business  .......... 15
_Daniel E. Palmer, Kent State University, USA_

Chapter 3
Game-Theoretic Insights Concerning Key Business Ethics Issues Occurring in Emerging
Economies ..................................................................................................................... 34
_Duane Windsor, Rice University, USA_

Chapter 4
Exploring Ethics in Innovation: The Case of High-Fructose Corn Syrup .............................. 56
_Leticia Antunes Nogueira, Aalborg University, Denmark_
_Tadeu Fernando Nogueira, Aalborg University, Denmark_

Chapter 5
Business Ethics, Strategy, and Organizational Integrity: The Importance of Integrity as a Basic Principle of Business Ethics that Contributes to Better Economic Performance ....................... 91
_Jacob Dahl Rendtorff, Roskilde University, Denmark_

Chapter 6
Entrepreneurial Ethical Decision Making: Context and Determinants ............................... 106
_Gizem Öksüzoglu-Güven, University of Mediterranean Karpasia, Cyprus_
Chapter 7
Bridging the Foundational Gap between Theory and Practice: The Paradigm on the Evolution of Business Ethics to Business Law ................................................................. 123
  Ben Tran, Alliant International University, USA

Section 2
Business Ethics Education: Integrating Ethics into the Business Curriculum

Chapter 8
Ethics for Students Means Knowing and Experiencing: Multiple Theories, Multiple Frameworks, Multiple Methods in Multiple Courses ................................................................. 153
  Cynthia Roberts, Purdue University North Central, USA
  Carolyn D. Roper, Purdue University North Central, USA

Chapter 9
Identifying Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Curricula of Leading U.S. Executive MBA Programs .................................................................................................................. 179
  Robin James Mayes, University of North Texas, USA
  Pamela Scott Bracey, Mississippi State University, USA
  Mariya Gavrilova Aguilar, University of North Texas, USA
  Jeff M. Allen, University of North Texas, USA

Chapter 10
Globally Responsible Management Education: From Principled Challenges to Practical Opportunities .................................................................................................................. 196
  Marco Tavanti, University of San Francisco, USA
  Elizabeth A. Wilp, Sustainable Capacity International Institute, USA

Chapter 11
Techniques for Preparing Business Students to Contribute to Ethical Organizational Cultures .......... 221
  William Irvin Sauser Jr., Auburn University, USA
  Ronald R. Sims, College of William and Mary, USA

Chapter 12
Voicing Possibilities: A Performative Approach to the Theory and Practice of Ethics in a Globalised World ............................................................................................................. 249
  Mark G. Edwards, University of Western Australia, Australia
  David A. Webb, University of Western Australia, Australia
  Stacie Chappell, Western New England University, USA
  Nin Kirkham, University of Western Australia, Australia
  Mary C. Gentile, Babson College, USA

Chapter 13
Mainstreaming Corporate Social Responsibility at the Core of the Business School Curriculum .... 276
  Dima Jamali, American University of Beirut, Lebanon
  Hanin Abdallah, American University of Beirut, Lebanon
Section 3
Business Ethics at Work: Understanding and Implementing Ethics in the Business World

Chapter 14
The Starbucks Culture: Responsible, Radical Innovation in an Irresponsible, Incremental World ........................................... 302
  Joan Marques, Woodbury University, USA
  Angelo A. Camillo, Woodbury University, USA
  Svetlana Holt, Woodbury University, USA

Chapter 15
Leading Ethically in a Culturally Diverse Global Environment .......................................................... 313
  Laurie A. Yates, Eastern Oregon University, USA

Chapter 16
Sustainability and Competitive Advantage: A Case of Patagonia’s Sustainability-Driven Innovation and Shared Value .......................................................... 330
  Francesco Rattalino, ESCP Europe, Italy

Chapter 17
Ethical Healthiness: A Key Factor in Building Learning Organizations .................................................. 356
  Alexis Jacobo Bañón-Gomis, Universitat Politècnica de València, Spain

Chapter 18
Facilitating Trust: The Benefits and Challenges of Communicating Corporate Social Responsibility Online .................................................................................. 373
  Mary Lyn Stoll, University of Southern Indiana, USA

Chapter 19
Privacy, Trust, and Business Ethics for Mobile Business Social Networks ................................................. 390
  István Mezgár, Budapest University of Technology and Economics, Hungary & Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Hungary
  Sonja Grabner-Kräuter, Alpen-Adria-Universität Klagenfurt, Austria

Chapter 20
Adoption of Supply Chain Sustainability in Developing Countries: An Empirical Investigation ........................................... 420
  Mohamed Gamal Aboelmaged, Ain Shams University, Egypt & AGU University, UAE
  Ibrahim El Siddig Ahmed, AGU University, UAE

Compilation of References .................................................................................................................. 444

About the Contributors ..................................................................................................................... 498

Index .................................................................................................................................................. 506