Acknowledgment

The editors would like to acknowledge the help of many people involved in this book.

First, the editors would like to thank each one of the authors for their contributions. Our sincere gratitude goes to the chapters’ authors who contributed their time and expertise to this book. We appreciate their efforts in improving their chapters by taking aboard all comments and feedback.

Second, the editors wish to acknowledge the valuable feedback from many colleagues about their advice on the contents, improvement of quality, coherence, and presentation of chapters. Without their support, this book would not have become a reality.

Finally, we would like to appreciate the support from IGI editor Austin de Marco during the book editing process.
