Acknowledgment

First and foremost, I would like to thank my daughters Stela and Mihaela for standing beside me throughout my scientific career, writing this and other authored books in the area of modern pedagogy. I’d like to thank my parents and grandparents for allowing me to follow my ambitions throughout my childhood. All the support they have provided me over the ten years of research was the greatest gift anyone has ever given me. Thanks to all my friends and colleagues for sharing my happiness when starting this project and following with encouragement when it seemed too difficult to be completed.

Special thanks go to Professor George Rudic, director of the Centre of Modern Pedagogy and the scientific adviser for my PhD thesis, for all that he has done for me. Thank you for reading everything I’ve written and its revisions, for critical comments and suggestions, for guiding, coaching, tutoring, supporting and directing me over the years to hard-working for better results. I am deeply indebted for your remarkable patience and perseverance, which was indisputable in completing the works in postmodernism and practical application of MetaSystems Learning Design in digital textbook use and development. Without your support and guidelines, I may never have gotten to where I am today.

Gratitude is also expressed for the encouragement and comments offered by Professors Petru Soltan (Academy of Sciences of Moldova); Ioan Neacșu (București University, Romania); Maia Borozan-Cojocaru, Virgil Mindacanu and Dumitru Patrașcu (Ion Creanga State Pedagogical University of Chisinau), Petru Gasin (State University of Moldova), Felix Hamza-Lup (Armstrong Atlantic State University, USA); Paivi Tynjala (Finnish Institute for Educational Research); Jose Carlos Lourenco Quadrado (ISEL, Portugal); Tiong-Thye Goh (Victoria University of Wellington, New Zealand), Giuliana Dettori (ITD-CNR, Italy); and doctors Nina Birnaz; Sergiu Cataranciuc and Gheorghe Capatina (State University of Moldova), Adelina Stefarta (Moldova University of European Studies) and Alexe Rau (director of National Library of Republic of Moldova).

Special thanks also go to the publishing team at IGI Global, whose contributions throughout the whole process from inception of the initial idea to final publication have been invaluable. In particular to Jan Travers, who assisted in keeping this project on schedule and to Allyson Gard, editorial assistant, whose enthusiasm has motivated me to proceed with my work. It has been great working with you all! Thank you very much for all your help and support!
I heartily wish to thank all the people who supported this two-year long project. Finally, I wish to thank all the authors who will read this book and find it useful and interesting. I take this opportunity to express my profound gratitude and deep regards to my listeners of conferences and workshops presented over the world.

_Elena Railean_

University of European Studies, Republic of Moldova & Academy of Sciences of Moldova, Republic of Moldova