Table of Contents

Foreword ............................................................................................................................................ xvii
Preface ................................................................................................................................................ xix
Acknowledgment .............................................................................................................................. xxiii

Section 1

Chapter 1
Ancient Thinking and Modern Challenges: Socratic Education in the 21st Century ......................... 1
   Frank G. Giuseffi, Missouri Military Academy, USA

Chapter 2
Critical Thinking and Character ........................................................................................................ 21
   Dana Delibovi, Lindenwood University, USA

Chapter 3
Critical Thinking, Socratic Seminars, and the College Classroom .................................................. 48
   John D. Long, Lindenwood University, USA

Chapter 4
The Erosion of Critical Thinking Development in Post-Secondary Education: The Need to Return to Liberal Education .......................................................................................................................... 68
   Michael Robert Hepner, St. Louis Community College, USA

Section 2

Chapter 5
Critical Thinking Skills in Virtual Learning Environments ............................................................... 98
   Julie M. Little, Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI), USA
   Charles Feldhaus, Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI), USA
Chapter 6
Developing an Assessment Program to Measure Critical Thinking: A Case Study at a Small, Online College ................................................................. 121
   Caulyne N. Barron, Dunlap-Stone University, USA

Chapter 7
University Teachers’ Interactions with Their Online Students at an Australian University .......... 142
   Shamsul Arifeen Khan Mamun, University of Southern Queensland, Australia
   P. A. Danaher, University of Southern Queensland, Australia
   Mohammad Mafizur Rahman, University of Southern Queensland, Australia

Section 3

Chapter 8
Academic Service-Learning as a Pedagogical Tool and Strategy: Promoting Critical Thinking among Pre-Service Teachers ........................................... 171
   Estanislado S. Barrera, IV, Louisiana State University, USA
   Margaret-Mary Sulentic Dowell, Louisiana State University, USA

Chapter 9
Developing Meaning-Making to Promote Critical Thinking ................................................ 195
   Sarah E. Schoper, Western Illinois University, USA
   Craig E. Wagner, Buena Vista University, USA

Chapter 10
Mapping Problems to Solutions: Logic Modeling in a Graduate Teacher Leadership Course .......... 218
   Tara Loraine Shepperson, Eastern Kentucky University, USA
   April Blakely, Eastern Kentucky University, USA

Chapter 11
Teaching Critical Thinking and the Role of Team Teaching .................................................. 246
   Stephen D. Brookfield, University of St. Thomas, USA

Chapter 12
Watching TV News: Should We Approach It Like Reality TV? .................................................. 271
   Joseph Albert Cernik, Lindenwood University, USA

Section 4

Chapter 13
Critical Thinking as a Multifaceted Phenomenon: A Scheme of Interdisciplinary Research Platform ................................................................................................. 292
   Maria Bednarikova, Slovak University of Technology, Slovakia
Chapter 14
Interdisciplinary Perceptions: Academic Acculturation and a Pathway to Improved Critical
Thinking ................................................................................................................................. 323

Donna M. Velliaris, Eynesbury Institute of Business and Technology, Australia

Section 5

Chapter 15
Developing Critical Thinking in Doctoral Students: Issues and Solutions ..................................... 348

Peter Smith, University of Sunderland, UK

Chapter 16
Faculty Support and Guidance for Doctoral Candidates: Promotion of Critical Thinking .............. 371

Sherrie L. Wisdom, Lindenwood University, USA

Section 6

Chapter 17
Globalization, Cross Border Education, and Student Migration: Determining Student Institutional
Choice Factors .......................................................................................................................... 397

Ryan Vance Guffey, Lindenwood University, USA

Chapter 18
The Japanese Tertiary Education System and Its Impact on Economic Conditions from 2000 to 2010: Human Capital Formation .............................................................................................. 443

Erin Lee Kalkbrenner, Lindenwood University, USA

Chapter 19
NAIA to NCAA D-II Sports Transition: A Three-Year University Case Study ............................. 472

Sherrie L. Wisdom, Lindenwood University, USA

Graham Weir, Lindenwood University, USA

Compilation of References .................................................................................................. 513

About the Contributors .......................................................................................................... 558

Index ....................................................................................................................................... 564