Table of Contents

Preface .................................................................................................................................................. xxii

Acknowledgment .................................................................................................................................. xxix

Section 1
Making a Plan

Chapter 1
Disaster Management and Continuity Planning in Libraries: Changes since the Year 2000 .......... 1
   Rebecca Hamilton, State Library of Louisiana, USA
   Diane Brown, State Library of Louisiana, USA

Chapter 2
The Incident Command System: Applying Emergency Response Best Practice to Your Disaster ...... 25
   David W. Carmicheal, Pennsylvania State Archives, USA

Chapter 3
Planning for a Disaster: Effective Emergency Management in the 21st Century ............................. 49
   Carmen Cowick, Amigos Library Services, USA
   Jeff Cowick, CUNY Queens College, USA

Chapter 4
Emergency Planning (R)Evolution: Making a Comprehensive Emergency Plan for the Present and the Future ............................................................................................................................................... 70
   Mary Beth Lock, Wake Forest University, USA
   Craig Fansler, Wake Forest University, USA
   Meghan Webb, Wake Forest University, USA

Chapter 5
Zen and the Art of Disaster Planning: Collaboration Challenges in Library Disaster Plan Design and Execution ............................................................................................................................................ 96
   Alison Verplaetse, Regis University, USA
   Paul Mascareñas, Regis University, USA
   Kimberly L. O’Neill, Regis University, USA
Chapter 6
Beyond the Collection: Emergency Planning for Public and Staff Safety ........................................... 120
   Jill Dixon, Binghamton University, USA
   Nancy Abashian, Binghamton University, USA

Chapter 7
Disaster Management and Exhibition Loans: Contingency Planning for Items on Display ............. 141
   Patti Gibbons, University of Chicago Library, USA

Chapter 8
One Plan, Four Libraries: A Case Study in Disaster Planning for a Four-Campus Academic Institution ........................................................................................................................................ 166
   Allison Galloup, University of North Georgia, USA

Chapter 9
Safety Doesn’t Happen by Accident: Disaster Planning at the University of Pittsburgh ............. 184
   Miranda L. Nixon, University of Pittsburgh, USA

   Section 2
   Surviving Disaster

Chapter 10
A Stitch in Time: Disaster Mitigation Strategies for Cultural Heritage Collections .................... 208
   Randy Silverman, University of Utah, USA
   Tomomi Nakashima, University of Utah, USA
   Jeffrey M. Hunt, University of Utah, USA
   Joyce Tuia, University of Utah, USA

Chapter 11
Prepared for Anything and Everything: Libraries, Archives, and Unexpected Small Scale Disasters ........................................................................................................................................ 240
   Dana Ray Chandler, Tuskegee University, USA

Chapter 12
Deferred Maintenance and Space Repurposing: The Impact on Libraries and Archives Disaster and Contingency Planning ........................................................................................................ 257
   S. Victor Fleischer, The University of Akron, USA
   Jo Ann Calzonetti, The University of Akron, USA

Chapter 13
Responding to High-Volume Water Disasters in the Research Library Context ..................... 282
   Whitney Baker, University of Kansas Libraries, USA

Chapter 14
It Is Everywhere: Handling a Mold Outbreak in a Library’s High-Density Storage Collection .... 311
   Alexis Braun Marks, Eastern Michigan University, USA
   Eric Owen, Eastern Michigan University, USA
Chapter 15
Navigating Campus Disasters from Within the Library: Lessons and Implications from Gulf Coast Institutions ................................................................................................................................. 340
   Mahauganee Dawn Shaw, Miami University, USA

Chapter 16
Surviving Sandy: Recovering Collections after a Natural Disaster ........................................ 366
   Sushan Chin, New York University, USA

Chapter 17
After the Flood: Lessons Learned from Small-Scale Disasters ........................................... 389
   Gerald Chaudron, University of Memphis, USA

Chapter 18
Shortcomings and Successes: A Small-Scale Disaster Case Study ....................................... 412
   Ashley Jones, Miami University, USA

Chapter 19
Quality Control and a Method for the Drying of Flooded Archive Collections: The Case of the Municipal Archive of Barcelona (2013) ............................................................................................................................... 436
   Rita Udina, Rita Udina Paper and Books Conservation and Restoration, Spain

Section 3
Lessons Learned

Chapter 20
Conservation Since 2000 ........................................................................................................... 467
   Valinda Carroll, Hampton University, USA

Chapter 21
The Library as Lifeboat ............................................................................................................ 494
   Michael R. Mabe, Chesterfield County Public Library, USA

Chapter 22
Disaster is in the Eye of the Beholder ...................................................................................... 516
   JJ Pionke, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, USA

Chapter 23
Disaster and Digital Libraries in Developing Countries: Issues and Challenges .................... 534
   Goodluck Ifijeh, Covenant University, Nigeria
   Jerome Idiegbeyan-ose, Covenant University, Nigeria
   Chidi Isiakpona, Covenant University, Nigeria
   Julie Ilogho, Covenant University, Nigeria
Chapter 24
Two Fires and a Flood: Lasting Impact on a Public Library, Its Staff, and Community .............. 560
   Bernadine Goldman, Los Alamos County Library System, USA

Chapter 25
Response to the Unthinkable: Collecting and Archiving Condolence and Temporary Memorial
Materials following Public Tragedies ........................................................................................................... 582
   Ashley Maynor, University of Tennessee – Knoxville, USA

Compilation of References ............................................................................................................................ 625

About the Contributors .................................................................................................................................. 661

Index.............................................................................................................................................................. 669