In this prologue, I take immense pleasure to articulate my sincere feeling towards the persons, who have touched me in any way or the other by their small things and played a vital role throughout the course of planning and finalization of book.

Experts in the area of environmental microbiology, biotechnology, and bioremediation, from diverse institutions worldwide, have contributed to this book. The editors would like to thank each one of the authors for their contributions. Our sincere gratitude goes to the chapter’s authors who contributed their time and expertise to this book. Editors wish to acknowledge the valuable contributions of the reviewers regarding the improvement of quality, coherence, and content presentation of chapters. Most of the authors also served as referees and their double task is highly appreciated.

With stupendous ecstasy and gratitude we would like to manifest our utmost reverence to our Editorial board members for providing valuable suggestions and hearty encouragement in bringing out this book. With profound sense of gratitude, I am extremely thankful to Shri Rama Shankar Singh, Hon’ble Chancellor and Prof. Vandana Kushwah, Hon’ble Vice Chancellor and Dr. Omveer Singh, Registrar, ITM University, Gwalior for providing moral support. I am also immensely indebted and owe my due regard to Ms. Ruchi Singh Chauhan, Vice President and Mr. Daulat Singh Chauhan, Managing Director, ITM University, Gwalior, without their support, this book would not have become a reality.

We also express our sincerest thanks to Prof. Aregno Michel, Emeritus professor of Microbiology, University of Neuchâtel, Switzerland and Dr. Virendra Nath, Department of Bryology, National Botanical Research Institute, Lucknow for their kind corporation. A single line of acknowledgement does not do justice to the immense gratitude we feel for the essential part played by Professor Uma Malkania and Dr. J. P. N. Rai, Department of Environmental Sciences, G. B. Pant University of Agriculture and Technology, Pantnagar.

We owe our immense gratitude to our family members, who inspired me to achieve the best in my life. The innocent love and patience of our little angel Manikarnika is inexpressible, that helps us in bringing this book in present form. All these things would amount to nothing, if we forget to mention the one and only who can see the invisible and do the impossible, whose blessings are always with us.
