Acknowledgment

First and foremost, the editors would like to thank very much to all the chapter authors for their contributions that took – from the start to the successful ending – more than a year of their maximum efforts dedicated to this book. Without their enthusiasm and expertise, this book would never have become a reality.

At the same time, the editors are pleased to express their recognition for the valuable support of the editorial board and reviewers regarding the improvement of quality, coherence, and content presentation of the chapters. It was not always an easy task to opt for a contribution or choose the right point of view within the defined frame of this book. We owe them a great deal for their demanding work!

And the least the editors can also do is to express their appreciation for the cooperation and patience of people in the IGI Global Publisher, who were involved in creating of this book from the very beginning.
