Acknowledgment

It is never easy writing a book. It involves taking time away from family for long hours of research and writing. Our families have made great sacrifices to support the successful completion of this book. We could not have done it without their unwavering support, encouragement and care. We dedicate this book to them. We also dedicate it to the voices for the First Amendment rights of students.

Our thanks to Srividhya Sundaram and David Lennox for their invaluable research support for this book. Thanks to Gina Doane who has sacrificed time with her precious miracle boy James Doane and her husband Forrest to help with presentations and lectures on harassing, intimidating and bullying off-campus speech. We would also like to thank the IGI Global staff and teams; Kayla Wolfe (Acquisitions Editor); Lindsay Johnston (Managing Director); Erin O’Dea (Editorial Assistant); Austin DeMarco (Managing Editor); Paige Anderson (Acquisitions Editorial Assistant); Deanna Jo Zombro (Multi-Volume Book Production Specialist); Taylor Brainard (Marketing Assistant); and Jan Travers (Director of Intellectual Property and Contracts) for their first-rate support throughout the process of publishing this book.
