The author wishes to convey her heartfelt gratitude to the following:

Milind V Kirtane- guide and mentor- for instilling values and virtues, and that pearl of medical wisdom “The patient comes to you with faith- never let him down”.

Bijayendra Singh and Narayanan Parameswaran- for agreeing to be interviewed and adding an international flavor to this venture.

Sharmila Bhosale- friend and accomplished writer- to prepare the Foreword of this book and give it the much needed ‘common man’s’ perspective that was required.

Patients, resident doctors, colleagues and superiors at the Pondicherry Institute of Medical Sciences- for the opportunity and purpose to take up this enterprise.

And finally IGI Global Publishers and the reviewers- for valuable guidance and encouragement.
