It is our pleasure to acknowledge that we are greatly indebted Frederick Nixson for being a bridge for us to reach some of the leading scholars to contribute this handbook. This volume has also benefited greatly from critical assessments made by Jomo Kwame Sundaram about the content. Savaş Çevik provided invaluable help with his constructive comments and advices for building up this volume. Mehmet Şişman and M. Öğuz Arslan were provided useful ideas. Sevda Mutlu Akar and Güneş Yılmaz played important roles during the review process with their analytical reviews when such reviews were needed in a very short time periods. This volume also benefited able assistance and helping hands from many people including Müge Yetkin Ataer, Sinan Ataer, Aykut Aydın, Burak Kozah, Fatma Turna, Gözde Nalbant Efe, Seda Şahin, Nursel Ayciner Avşar, Coşkun Karaca, Dilek Akbaş Akdoğan, and Murat Demir.

Our special thanks go to Francisco Sercovich for accepting to write the first chapter and Jomo Kwame Sundaram for writing the foreword for this volume. Last but not least, we wish to thank IGI Global staff for their help in preparing this volume for publication. It is our pleasure to thank Managing Director Lindsay Johnson; Director of Intellectual Property & Contracts Jan Travers; Acquisition Editor Kayla Wolfe; Series Editor Ahmed Driouchi; Production Editor Christina Henning; Production Specialist Deanna Jo Zombro; the current and previous Development editors Janine Haughton, Courtney Tychinski, Brandon Carbaugh, and Hayley Kang; Typesetter Kaitlyn Kulp; and Cover Designer Jason Mull.

Some debts go well beyond this book and extends to the families. My wife Melda Erdoğan and my son Turgay Erdoğan impatiently waited for my return from the sleepless nights to normal life in the last phase of the handbook. Throughout the whole process of preparing for and editing the chapters, they had to put up with an obsessed man. Without their support, this work could not be completed.
