Table of Contents

Foreword ........................................................................................................................................... xvii

Preface .................................................................................................................................................. xx

Acknowledgment ................................................................................................................................... xxv

Section 1
Study Abroad Foundations

Chapter 1
Developing a Faculty-Led Study Abroad Program for Education Majors in a Non-English Speaking Country ......................................................................................................................... 1

Barbara A. Bradley, University of Kansas, USA
Jamie Colwell, Old Dominion University, USA
Mindy Spearman, Clemson University, USA

Chapter 2
Innovative Study Abroad Models: Embedding International Experiences in Curricular Development ................................................................................................................................. 22

Tammy M. Milby, University of Richmond, USA
Joan A. Rhodes, Virginia Commonwealth University, USA
Michael R. Scott, Virginia Commonwealth University, USA

Chapter 3
Experiential Learning in International Classrooms: A Model for Preservice Teachers ................................. 36

Ann Cunningham, Wake Forest University, USA

Chapter 4
Preparing Culturally Competent Teachers through Faculty-Led Study Abroad ................................................. 57

R. McKenna Brown, Virginia Commonwealth University, USA
Stephanie Erin Tignor, Virginia Commonwealth University, USA

Chapter 5
The Importance of Intercultural Learning in Study Abroad ................................................................................. 74

Steven T. Duke, University of Nebraska, USA
Section 2
Curriculum Innovation and Change: Teaching

Chapter 6
Preservice Teacher Reflections about Short-Term Summer Study Abroad Experiences in Italy .......... 91
  Jamie Colwell, Old Dominion University, USA
  Diane Nielsen, University of Kansas, USA
  Barbara A. Bradley, University of Kansas, USA
  Mindy Spearman, Clemson University, USA

Chapter 7
Engaging Heads, Hands, and Hearts to Optimize Study Abroad Outcomes ................................. 112
  Patricia A Talbot, Radford University, USA
  Jennifer Jones, Radford University, USA

Chapter 8
Renewal in the Land of Eternal Spring: Teacher Educators Reflecting on Their Practice ............. 131
  Jeanne Beck Cobb, Coastal Carolina University, USA
  Tammy Ryan, Jacksonville University, USA
  B. P. (Barbara) Laster, Towson University, USA

Section 3
Curriculum Innovation and Change: Language Development

Chapter 9
Meaningful Language and Cultural Experiences for Future Teachers in Puerto Rico ................ 160
  Judith Cruzado-Guerrero, Towson University, USA
  Gilda Martinez-Alba, Towson University, USA

Chapter 10
Integrating Study Abroad Curriculum in Teacher Education ....................................................... 177
  Yasemin Kırkgöz, Çukurova University, Turkey

Chapter 11
Language Teaching Strategies: Five Countries Compared Through Study Abroad .................... 198
  Gilda Martinez-Alba, Towson University, USA
  Judith Cruzado-Guerrero, Towson University, USA

Section 4
Curriculum Innovation and Change: Higher Education

Chapter 12
Study Abroad in Graduate Adult Learning Curriculum: Enhancing Learning through the Lived-Experience ............................................................................................................. 215
  Robin Rimmer Hurst, Virginia Commonwealth University, USA
Chapter 13
International Students’ Learning Experience and Learning Outcomes in China through Summer Programs ................................................................. 233
   Jiabin Zhu, Shanghai Jiao Tong University, China
   Bo Yang, Shanghai Jiao Tong University, China
   Qunqun Liu, Shanghai Jiao Tong University, China
   Bing Chen, Shanghai Jiao Tong University, China

Chapter 14
Thoughtfully Preparing Business Students and Faculty for Study Abroad: Strategies for Making the Connection ................................................................. 250
   David Starr-Glass, University of New York in Prague, Czech Republic

Section 5
Opportunities and Challenges in the Innovation Process

Chapter 15
Post Study Abroad: To Which Reality Should the Teacher Candidates Return?................................. 274
   Shannon L. Melideo, Marymount University, USA

Chapter 16
The Benefits and Challenges of Study Abroad in Teacher Education in a Neoliberal Context........ 290
   Hannah Dockrill, Purdue University, USA
   Jubin Rahatzad, Purdue University, USA
   JoAnn Phillion, Purdue University, USA

Chapter 17
Dealing with Reverse Culture Shock for Students Returning from Study Abroad Programs......... 306
   Amir Manzoor, Bahria University, Pakistan

Compilation of References .............................................................................................................. 327

About the Contributors .................................................................................................................... 359

Index ................................................................................................................................................ 364