Acknowledgment

The editors would like to acknowledge the help of all the people involved in this project and, more specifically, to the participants of the panel discussion titled “Ethnic Conflict: Constructing, Deconstructing and Reconstructing Ethnic Divides” at the International Communication Association (ICA) 64th Annual Conference in 2014 in Seattle, WA. Without the encouragement and support of participants of the panel and organizers of the conference, this book would not have become a reality.

The editors would also like to thank each one of the authors for their contributions. Our sincere gratitude goes to the chapter’s authors who contributed their time and expertise to this book.

Additionally, the editors wish to acknowledge the valuable contributions of the reviewers regarding the improvement of quality, coherence, and content presentation of chapters. Many of the authors also served as referees; we appreciate their double task.
