Acknowledgment

The authors would like to acknowledge the help of all the people involved in this book and, more specifically, to the reviewers that took part in the review process. Without their support, this book would not have become a reality.

First, our sincere gratitude goes to Dr. Harold Bershady for his valuable comments and encouragement. Second, the authors wish to acknowledge the valuable review and editing of Dr. Thomas Ricks editorial work regarding the improvement of quality, coherence, and content presentation of the chapters. We are grateful to Dr. Glenn Asquith for reading and editing our work. We express our appreciation to Dr. Aziz Al-Azmeh who graciously clarified ambiguous terminology as well as Dr. Javad Tabatabaa-e who encouraged us to advance Max Weber’s thesis. We are grateful to Dr. Akbar Mahdi who assiduously read chapters and commented on our project. Dr. Hushanag Rahnema, Dr. Omid Noudushani provided inspiration. Farhad Afsharvand brought much attention to our work by supplying Persian manuscripts as well as addressing political and cultural issues in regard to Islamic culture.

We thank our librarians Michele Mrazik and Phyllis Vogel and Michelle Foster for research assistance in this process.

We appreciate the love and encouragements of our family members, Mehdi, Varta and Rata Hojjat, Mahmonir, Amir Hasan and Assal Shahpari.

We are responsible and accountable for the information included in this work, all errors are our own.

Copy-Right Issue

Hasan Shahpari and Tahereh Alavi Hojjat as authors of this book been granted by the copyright holder for figures, tables, quotes or any other material that is not original to our chapter, bearing in mind the fair dealing rule which were borrowed from other sources.