Acknowledgement

The editor would like to express their gratitude to all the people who contributed to the book as authors, advisors, reviewers, and developers. It is only because of their support and contributions that a publication such as this can develop. I am happy and grateful that so many colleagues, from many different backgrounds and regions, were enthusiastic about the idea to develop this book.

I would also like to thank the team at IGI Global. Their professionalism, and sometimes patience, was an important condition for the development of this book.

I am proud of the result of our joint efforts and hope that it will make a meaningful contribution to the further professionalization of ‘the art of’ project management.
