Acknowledgment

We would like to express our immense gratitude to all those who saw us through this book; to all those who provided support, talked things over, read, wrote, offered comments, allowed us to quote their remarks, and assisted in the editing, proofreading, and designing this book.

We would like to thank each author for taking time out of their schedules and making their contribution to this book. We greatly value your contribution without which this book would not have been in our hands.

We would also like to thank the members of the editorial advisory board for helping us in the process of reviewing, selecting, and editing each chapter. Thanks to Courtney Tychinski and other members from IGI Global for staying with us till the end and encouraging us at every step.

Last but not the least, a big thank you to our family members, who supported and encouraged us in spite of all the time it took us away from them.
