Table of Contents

Preface ................................................................................................................................................ xvi

Section 1

Television, New Media, and Media Events

Chapter 1
Global Media Events: Kennedy, Titanic, and Fukushima ................................................................. 1
Christian Morgner, University of Leicester, UK

Chapter 2
The Media Event as Enhanced News Story: How User-Generated Content Determines the News
Agenda .................................................................................................................................................. 17
Andrew Fox, University of Huddersfield, UK

Chapter 3
Twitter and Blogs in Social Movements: Ayotzinapa around the World ....................................... 28
Diego Oswaldo Camacho Vega, Université Pierre et Marie Curie, France

Chapter 4
Critical Role of Emotions in Media Events: Anger Dynamics in Political Scandals ....................... 41
Monika Verbalytė, Freie Universität Berlin, Germany

Section 2

Historical Crises and Media Events

Chapter 5
Integrative Disruption: The Rescue of the 33 Chilean Miners as a Live Media Event ...................... 60
César Jiménez-Martínez, London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE), UK

Chapter 6
The Crisis of Public Health as a Media Event: Between Media Frames and Public Assessments...... 78
Valentina Marinescu, University of Bucharest, Romania
Chapter 7
Humanitarian Media Events: On the Symbolic Conditions of Moral Integration
Robin Vandevoordt, University of East Anglia, UK

Chapter 8
Sociological School of Bucharest’s Publications and the Romanian Political Propaganda in the Interwar Period
Bogdan Bucur, National University of Political Studies and Public Administration (SNSPA), Romania

Section 3
Ceremonial Media Events

Chapter 9
Media Events, Jewish Religious Holydays, and the Israeli Press
Yoel Cohen, Ariel University, Israel

Chapter 10
More Hope! Ceremonial Media Events Are Still Powerful in the Twenty-First Century
Julia Sonnevend, University of Michigan, USA

Chapter 11
The Last Historic TV Star? Nelson Mandela’s Funeral Broadcast, Social Media and the Future of Media Events
Martha Evans, University of Cape Town, South Africa

Chapter 12
The Black Panther Has Died: Or How Ceremonial Television Hosted Public Mourning
Samuel Mateus, Universidade Autónoma de Lisboa (UAL), Portugal

Section 4
Sporting Competition as Media Events

Chapter 13
Between Sports Event and Media Event: The Sochi 2014 Olympic Winter Games in Italian Newspapers
Marica Spalletta, Link Campus University, Italy
Lorenzo Ugolini, Sapienza University of Rome, Italy

Chapter 14
Sport Omnibus Events as Media Shows
Diana-Luiza Dumitriu, National University of Political Studies and Public Administration, Romania