Table of Contents

Preface .................................................................................................................................................. xvi

Acknowledgment ................................................................................................................................... xix

Section 1

Workforce Diversity Programs

Chapter 1
Exploring the Impact of an Online Diversity Course for the Professional Development of Faculty and Staff ................................................................................................................................................ 1
Marlo Goldstein Hode, University of Missouri, USA
Elizabeth Behm-Morawitz, University of Missouri, USA

Chapter 2
Implementing Black Male Initiative Programs: A Model for Promoting African American Male Success at a Metropolitan University ........................................................................................................ 28
Stevie Johnson, University of Central Oklahoma, USA
MeShawn Conley, University of Central Oklahoma, USA
Myron L. Pope, University of Central Oklahoma, USA

Chapter 3
Black Student-Faculty Mentorship Programs: A Means to Increase Workforce Diversity in the Professoriate ........................................................................................................................................... 43
Shavonne Shorter, Bloomsburg University, USA

Chapter 4
The Diverse Voices Conference: Expanding Diversity Education Beyond the Classroom .................. 62
Chaunda L. Scott, Oakland University, USA

Chapter 5
Diverse Student Scholars: How a Faculty Member’s Undergraduate Research Program Can Advance Workforce Diversity Learning ........................................................................................................ 74
Jeanetta D. Sims, University of Central Oklahoma, USA
Jalea Shuff, University of Central Oklahoma, USA
Hung-Lin Lai, University of Central Oklahoma, USA
Section 2
Workforce Diversity Curriculum, Teaching, and Instruction

Chapter 6
Using Narrative and Team-Teaching to Address Teaching About Racial Dynamics .......................... 98
Stephen Brookfield, St. Thomas University, USA

Chapter 7
Workforce Diversity Curriculum Design Considerations for Diversity Certificates and Study Abroad Experiences .................................................................................................................. 117
Atoya Sims, University of Central Oklahoma, USA

Chapter 8
Developing an Intergroup Communication Intervention Curriculum: Enhancing Workforce Skills Across Generations .............................................................................................................. 140
Kate Magsamen-Conrad, Bowling Green State University, USA
Jeanette M. Dillon, Bowling Green State University, USA
Lisa K. Hanasono, Bowling Green State University, USA
Paul Anthony Valdez, Bowling Green State University, USA

Chapter 9
A Perspective on How Counseling Curricula can Enhance Workforce Diversity Practices ............... 162
Jennifer J. Matthews, Oakland University, USA

Chapter 10
Developing a Social Justice-Oriented Workforce Diversity Concentration in Human Relations Academic Programs .................................................................................................................. 179
Marilyn Y. Byrd, University of Oklahoma, USA
Brenda Lloyd-Jones, University of Oklahoma, USA

Chapter 11
Organizational Socialization and Workplace Diversity The Case for Experiential Learning .......... 197
Dini Massad Homsey, University of Central Oklahoma, USA

Section 3
Future Direction for Workforce Diversity in Higher Education

Chapter 12
Trans*Forming Higher Education to Advance Workforce Diversity .................................................. 211
Catherine L. Langford, Texas Tech University, USA
Chapter 13
TIPS to Maximize Meaningful Professional Development Programs and Initiatives: A Case Study in Theoretically-Grounded Diversity Education................................................................. 235
   Stephanie L. Sanders, Old Dominion University, USA
   Mark P. Orbe, Western Michigan University, USA

Chapter 14
Utilizing Virtual Technology as a Tool to Enhance the Workforce Diversity Learning............... 258
   Bertie Marie Greer, Northern Kentucky University, USA
   Denise J Luethge, Northern Kentucky University, USA
   Gil Robinson, University of East London, UK

Chapter 15
Beyond Handicap, Pity, and Inspiration: Disability and Diversity in Workforce Development Education and Practice.................................................................................................................. 280
   Hannah Rudstam, Cornell University, USA
   Thomas Golden, Cornell University, USA
   Susanne Bruyere, Cornell University, USA
   Sara Van Looy, Cornell University, USA
   Wendy Strobel Gower, Cornell University, USA

Chapter 16
Diversity in Undergraduate Medical Education: An Examination of Organizational Culture and Climate in Medical Schools........................................................................................................... 304
   Laura Castillo-Page, Association of American Medical College, USA
   Jennifer Eliason, Association of American Medical College, USA
   Sarah S. Conrad, Association of American Medical Colleges, USA
   Marc A. Nivet, Association of American Medical College, USA

Chapter 17
A Future Direction for Integrating Workforce Diversity across the Curriculum: A Case Study of Strategic Planning, Interdisciplinary Research, and Co-Teaching.................................................. 327
   Roxana D. Maiiorescu, Emerson College, USA
   Mary J. Eberhardinger, Emerson College, USA

Compilation of References ........................................................................................................... 344

About the Contributors.................................................................................................................. 388

Index............................................................................................................................................... 396