Acknowledgment

The editors are very grateful to many people involved in this project. Without their support, this book would not have become a reality.

First, we want to thank to IGI Global for accepting this book. We would specially like to express our gratitude to Courtney Tychinski for their qualified support and assistance during the whole process of publication.

Second, we would like to thank each one of the authors for their contributions. Our sincere gratitude goes to the chapter’s authors who contributed their time and expertise to this book.

Third, the editors wish to acknowledge the valuable contributions of the reviewers regarding the improvement of quality, coherence, and content presentation of chapters. Most of the authors also served as referees; we highly appreciate their double task.

We were also very fortunate to count with the collaboration of José Antonio Puelles, Marketing Professor and Consultant. He provided his wise advices and wrote an invaluable foreword. His daughter, María Puelles, Marketing Professor in Complutense University of Madrid, also helped us as an author in three chapters and in the process of the foreword elaboration. Our warm thanks also for her.

Finally, we would like to thank ourselves for having worked together with enthusiasm and motivation. This Handbook is a result of our teamwork. We hope the reader considers it as a great contribution to the knowledge in the field of retailing.
