Acknowledgment

Thank you to each and every individual that was involved in this project. Without their support, this book would not have become a reality.

First, I would like to thank each one of the authors for their contributions. Sincere gratitude goes to the chapter’s authors who contributed their time and expertise to this book.

Second, I wish to acknowledge the valuable contributions of the editorial advisory board members that managed the improvement of quality, coherence, and content presentation of the chapters. Some of the authors also served as referees; their double task is highly appreciated.

I extend my appreciation to Jorge Gonzalez for his constructive criticism and responsive correspondence on the chapters reviewed. I really appreciate his generous support throughout this project.

Special thanks to Axel Kloth for contributing many hours of his precious time to review the chapters of this book, and help in improving it. I feel that Axel provided expert knowledge and feedback that led to the successful completion of this book.

Lastly, I am grateful to the editorial team at IGI Global for their support through the stages of preparation and production. Thanks to Courtney Tychinski and Meghan Lamb who closely worked with me to make the process smooth and efficient.
