Table of Contents

Foreword .............................................................................................................................. xv

Preface ................................................................................................................................. xvii

Acknowledgment .................................................................................................................. xxv

Chapter 1
Valuing the History, Missions and Traditions of HBCUs: Back to the Basics ..... 1
  Derrick M. Bryan, Morehouse College, USA
  Felicia Stewart, Morehouse College, USA

Chapter 2
Understanding, Celebrating and Maintaining the “HBCU Experience” .......... 25
  Tia C. M. Tyree, Howard University, USA
  Christopher D. Cathcart, OneDiaspora Group, USA

Chapter 3
Debunking The Myth of Dependency: HBCUs and The Challenges of Western Education ............................................................................................................ 44
  Kehbuma Langmia, Howard University, USA

Chapter 4
Dynamic Leadership: Moving HBCUs Toward New Ontologies of
Organizational Development ............................................................................................ 58
  Myron Devere White, North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University, USA

Chapter 5
Delineating Challenges and Opportunities for HBCUs: Why Continued
Diversification Is a Competitive Strategy ................................................................. 72
  Osundwa Fred Wanjera, University of Connecticut, USA
Chapter 6
Benchmarking HBCU Efficiency: Beyond Retention ........................................ 95
Jason Coupet, North Carolina State University, USA

Chapter 7
Shared Governance and Collective Bargaining: Can It Advance Faculty Satisfaction, Governance and Accountability at HBCUs? ......................... 129
Elizabeth K. Davenport, Florida A & M University, USA

Chapter 8
Social Media and HBCU Admissions: An Analysis of Two-Way Communication .................................................................................................. 142
Erica C. Southerland, Howard University, USA
Jacqueline R. Lewis, Old Dominion University, USA

Chapter 9
The Impact of Performance-Based Funding on Historically Black Colleges and Universities: A Comparative State Analysis ........................................ 151
William Casey Boland, University of Pennsylvania, USA

Chapter 10
College Dollars and Sense: Exploring Financial Aid Innovations at Historically Black Colleges and Universities ..................................................... 179
Jessica D. Johnson, The Scholarship Academy, USA

Chapter 11
HBCUs: Efficiencies of Creating a Scientific Workforce Outta Fifteen Cents ................................................................. 199
Rhonda Vonshay Sharpe, Bucknell University, USA & Women’s Institute for Science, Equity and Race, USA

Chapter 12
Establishing a Media Literacy Cognate at Historically Black Colleges and Universities: A Comparative Analysis of Existing Courses and Potential of Implementation ......................................................... 213
Jayne Cubbage, Bowie State University, USA
Chapter 13
Strengthening HBCU Colleges of Education for the Current Climate:
Hearing Multiple Perspectives for Change .................................................. 237

   Kimberly Lenease King Jupiter, Tennessee State University, USA
   Alethea Fletcher Hampton, Tennessee State University, USA
   Thurman E Webb, Tennessee State University, USA
   Darreon Greer, Tennessee State University, USA

Compilation of References .............................................................................. 261

About the Contributors .................................................................................... 290

Index .................................................................................................................. 298