Table of Contents

Preface .................................................................................................................................................. xv

Acknowledgment ................................................................................................................................... xxi

Chapter 1
Better Together: The Successful Public/Academic Joint Use Library ................................. 1
  Michelle R. Desilets, Metropolitan State University, USA
  Jennifer DeJonghe, Metropolitan State University, USA
  Michelle Filkins, Metropolitan State University, USA

Chapter 2
Marriage after Divorce: The Challenges and Opportunities of a Shared Library after Institutions Separate ................................................................................................................................. 22
  Brian Doherty, New College of Florida, USA

Chapter 3
Building the “Bridge” between Two Liberal Arts College Libraries: A Case Study in Deep Collaboration ........................................................................................................................................ 45
  Roberta L. Lembke, St. Olaf College, USA
  Bradley L. Schaffner, Carleton College, USA

Chapter 4
The Library as a Center for Innovation: A Collaboration at the University of Maryland .............. 68
  Gary W. White, University of Maryland, USA

Chapter 5
Academic Libraries in Partnership with the Government Publishing Office: A Changing Paradigm .................................................................................................................................................. 87
  Barbara Costello, Stetson University, USA

Chapter 6
A Statewide Collaborative Storage and Print Repository Model: The Florida Academic Repository (FLARE) ............................................................................................................................... 111
  Ben Walker, University of Florida, USA
  Tabatha Pursley, University of Florida, USA
Chapter 7
Collaborative Weeding among Public University Libraries Can Lead to Cost Savings for All .......... 130
   Helen N. Levenson, Oakland University, USA

Chapter 8
The Evolution of Collaborative Collection Development within a Library Consortium: Data Analysis Applied in a Cultural Context ................................................................. 157
   Anne Charlotte Osterman, Virtual Library of Virginia, USA
   Genya O’Gara, James Madison University, USA
   Alison M. Armstrong, Radford University, USA

Chapter 9
The Portal to Texas History: Building a Partnership Model for a Statewide Digital Library .......... 182
   Dreanna Belden, University of North Texas, USA
   Mark E. Phillips, University of North Texas, USA
   Tara Carlisle, University of Oklahoma, USA
   Cathy Nelson Hartman, University of North Texas, USA

Chapter 10
Processes, Opportunities, and Challenges Creating and Managing a Scholarly Open Access Journal: An Investigation of “Collaborative Librarianship” ................................................... 205
   Ivan Gaetz, Colorado College, USA

Chapter 11
Moving from Co-Location to Cooperation to Collaboration: Redefining a Library’s Role within the University ......................................................................................................... 230
   Rosemary Bodolay, University of Wisconsin – Madison, USA
   Steve Frye, University of Wisconsin – Madison, USA
   Carrie Kruse, University of Wisconsin – Madison, USA
   Dave Luke, University of Wisconsin – Madison, USA

Chapter 12
Librarian and Peer Research Mentor Partnerships that Promote Student Success ................. 255
   Carolyn White Gamtso, University of New Hampshire – Manchester, USA
   Rachel Blair Vogt, University of New Hampshire – Manchester, USA
   Annie Donahue, University of New Hampshire – Manchester, USA
   Kimberly Donovan, University of New Hampshire – Manchester, USA
   Jennifer Jefferson, MassBay Community College, USA

Chapter 13
Concept, Conversion, Cultivation, and Consequence: The Four Cs of Successful Collaboration ..... 280
   Hayley Johnson, Nicholls State University, USA
   Sarah Simms, Nicholls State University, USA
Chapter 14
Publish or Perish: Librarians Collaborating to Support Junior Faculty to Publish within the Academic Environment
Emy Nelson Decker, Atlanta University Center Robert W. Woodruff Library, USA
Rosaline Y. Odom, Atlanta University Center Robert W. Woodruff Library, USA

Chapter 15
Collaborating to Create a Fashionable Event: A Guide for Creating a Library-Sponsored Conference
Nicole Elizabeth LaMoreaux, LIM College, USA

Compilation of References

About the Contributors

Index