Acknowledgment

We wish to express our appreciation to the contributing authors whose thoughtful chapters combine to create this significant addition to the scholarship in the field of educational leadership. You bring a renewed sense of importance to the educational professional practice doctorate, as well as a new understanding of the dynamic role of the intersection of practice and theory.

We would like to thank our eminent Editorial Advisory Board members who have enthusiastically and meticulously reviewed all chapters during the blind review process, despite their busy research and teaching schedules. Their professional support for this book is greatly appreciated.

We would also like to thank IGI Global editorial/production team.

Special thanks to our partners for their constant support and encouragement throughout this project.
