No work big or small is an accomplishment of any individual but a consistent and coordinated effort of a clique. Another driving force is the encouragement and guidance provided by friends and family, their words of motivation prove to be the guiding light in times of distress. I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to all those, whose unremitting efforts helped me realize this piece of literature.

First of all, I would like to thank my colleagues at the publishing team at Idea Group Publishing for their wonderful collaboration and timely reminder for the needful action at my end. You have supported me incredibly throughout. In particular, I would like to single out the contributions of Courtney Tychinski whose continuous suggestions and valuable information kept me motivated also served as a timely reminder for the completion of the work. A journey of thousand miles begins with a single step, I would like to Kayla Wolfe for helping me with the inception of this book, I would also like to extend my gratitude to Jan Travers for timely completion of the contract agreement and helping me to finally decide the title of the book which I feel is essential for attracting the prospective contributors. I would like to thank all other support staff of Idea Group for extending their full support. A special word of mention to Professors and researcher’s across globe for agreeing to be part of the EAB and helping me to find a professor to write the Foreword. Thanks a ton Sir!

Secondly, the editor would like to thank each one of the authors for their contributions. My sincere gratitude goes to the chapter’s authors who contributed their time and expertise to this book. I wish to thank the authors for their meticulous efforts and unparalleled perseverance that paved the way for the success of the project. I am also deeply indebted to all the reviewers, there deep insights regarding the improvement of quality, coherence, and content presentation of chapters were invaluable. Most of the authors also served as referees; I highly appreciate their double task their suggestions have contributed immensely to change the structure of the chapters and have transformed the book into its current form.

Any project cannot succeed without a conducive environment. I would like to take this opportunity to thank my colleagues at AIACT&R for being the fulcrum of guidance & motivation. I would like to thank Prof Ashok Mittal for his words of encouragement and invigoration. Also, I would like to thank my students Amit Kumar, Pulkit Sharma and Komal Mahajan for their help during the whole development process.

At last, I would like to thank my parents for their blessing and words of wisdom, the values of hard work, passion and perseverance they inculcated in me as a child, have helped me sail through all the challenges I faced during the completion of this book. No words are enough to thank my beloved wife for standing by me at all times, without her perpetual support and counsel this book would not be a reality. Thank you for your unrelenting love and affection. I would also like to openly admit that I draw a great amount of inspiration from my son whose zeal and gusto for life has always motivated me to work better and faster. Thank you, one and all.
