Acknowledgment

I tick off another item from my wish-list! It has been a year-long eventful journey with the authors, the reviewers, the editorial staff and the editorial advisory board. I am sincerely grateful to everyone involved with this book for their time and effort as without their input the book would not have been possible.

In particular, my heartfelt gratitude and appreciation goes to the chapters’ author/s who contributed their time and expertise to this book.

I would like to thank my parents and my wife, Harita, for constantly supporting my endeavours and in particular my children Aryan & Ria for understanding that I was occasionally stealing some family time away from them.

I also acknowledge that knowledge is power and social media can help to collect, store, disseminate and apply knowledge.
