Table of Contents

Preface ...........................................................................................................................................xii

Acknowledgment .......................................................................................................................xiv

Chapter 1
Introduction: Civil Religion and Nationalism on a Godly-Civil Continuum ........ 1
   Eyal Lewin, Ariel University, Israel
   Etta Bick, Ariel University, Israel

Chapter 2
Religion and Politics: A Troubled Relationship in a Volatile World ............... 32
   Keren Sasson, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel

Chapter 3
The Theocratic Deception Trap: Khomeini’s Persuasion Techniques and Communication Patterns in His Books, Guardianship of the Jurist 1979 and Testament 1989 ......................................................... 62
   Tabassom Fanaian, University of Oslo, Norway

Chapter 4
Anti-Semitism as a Civil Religion: Progressive Paradigms in the Anti-
Semitic Construction of German National Identity ................................. 106
   Marc Neugröschel, Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel

Chapter 5
How Civic is Russia’s New Civil Religion and How Religious is the Church? ......................................................................................................................... 125
   Yuri Teper, Ariel University, Israel & The University of Manchester, UK

Chapter 6
The Clash of Civil Religions in Post-Revolutionary Egypt ......................... 156
   Bosmat Yefet, Ariel University, Israel
Chapter 7
National-Liberty Reflections of the Exodus Myth in Palestine-Israel Print Media Advertisements, 1923-1958 ................................................................. 190
Dorit Zimand Sheiner, Ariel University, Israel

Chapter 8
The Haredi Scholar-Society and the Military Draft in Israel: Counter-Nationalism and the Imagined Military Symbiosis ........................................ 210
Nissim Leon, Bar-Ilan University, Israel

Chapter 9
Avoiding Conscription in Israel: Were Women Pawns in the Political Game? ................................................................................................................. 226
Nurit Gillath, Independent Researcher, Israel

Chapter 10
Values, Constraints, and Maneuvers: Processes of Academization among Ultra-Orthodox Women and Beduin Women in Israel................................. 257
Tehila Kalagy, Ben Gurion University, Israel

Compilation of References ............................................................................. 285

About the Contributors ..................................................................................... 317

Index .................................................................................................................. 320