Acknowledgment

Editor gladly acknowledges the relentless support and generous assistance from all authors that are involved in the accumulation of manuscripts, revision and finalization of various studies and research outcomes, without which the project could not have been satisfactorily accomplished.

Special thanks go to the enthusiastic and brilliant publishing team at the IGI Global. Particularly to Eleana Wehr for her suggestions, supports, feedbacks and co-operations for keeping the project on schedule, and to Mehdi Khosrow-Pour, Jan Travers and Caitlyn Martin for their continuous professional guidance. Finally, sincere thanks go to my family, friends and colleagues for their love and support.
