I am extremely happy to express my thanks to the Worthy Vice Chancellor, Guru Nanak Dev University, India for providing the academic environment to carry out the editing of this book. I would like to thank my teacher Dr Dilbag Singh, Head of Department Instrumentation and Control Engineering, National Institute of Technology Jalandhar India for his continuous moral support and constant encouragement. He has, by setting examples, instilled a great appreciation of good work ethic, curiosity, creativity and honesty towards work that are so essential for success and enjoyment for a career in academics.

My warmest thanks are due to all chapter authors, reviewers and publisher for their support and contribution to this book. Special thanks to Mr Anukul Pandey, Research Scholar, for extending help in various ways throughout this work.

Last but not least I would like to thank those who directly or indirectly involved in bringing up this book successfully. I wish to express my warmest thanks to my parents for their unselfish efforts to help their son in all fields of life. Finally, many thanks to my life companion Savita and my dear brother Er Varinder Singh, Renu and my sweet children Mehak, Love and Noor for their support, care and sacrifices.
