Table of Contents

Preface ........................................................................................................................................... xv
Acknowledgment .......................................................................................................................... xx

Section 1
Community Engagement Collaborations across Curricula and Contexts

Chapter 1
Impact of Community Engagement in Higher Education ...................................................... 1
Michelle D. Huddleston, Tennessee Technological University, USA

Chapter 2
Experiential Learning, Service Learning, and Engagement in a University ESL Setting: The Graduate Cohort Program ................................................................. 29
Michael Fields, University of Delaware, USA

Chapter 3
“It Depends on the Type of Program”: Student Perceptions of Service-Learning .......................... 58
Timothy A. Micek, Ohio Dominican University, USA
Judith M. Monseur, Antioch University Midwest, USA

Chapter 4
Community Service Learning: Recruiting Psychology Majors for Service in a Low-Income Community ........................................................................................................... 85
Tomesha Manora Farris, Western Michigan University, USA
Denise Ross, Western Michigan University, USA
Brandi Fontenot, Western Michigan University, USA
Gaige Johnson, Western Michigan University, USA
Margaret Uwayo, Western Michigan University, USA
Garrett D. Warrilow, Western Michigan University, USA
Chapter 5
Service-Learning in Action: Students, Inmates, and a Storybook Project ........ 104
Lindsay A. Blumer, Ripon College, USA

Section 2
Community Engagement Online

Chapter 6
E-Service-Learning in Virtual Teamwork .............................................. 115
Melody S. Rawlings, Northern Kentucky University, USA
Megan S. Downing, Northern Kentucky University, USA

Chapter 7
Service Learning Online: Preparing to Work in Global Societies with E-Service-Learning ................................................................. 150
Frederick Brockmeier, Northern Kentucky University, USA

Section 3
Further Considerations

Chapter 8
Service Learning for the Community College Student ....................... 174
Roch Turner, University of Montana, USA

Chapter 9
Supporting Graduate Students to Implement Community-Engaged Research .............................................................. 196
Audrey Faye Falk, Merrimack College, USA
Brittany E. Vine, The Mustard Seed, Canada

Chapter 10
Challenges of Practicing and Honing Leadership Skills through Cross-Cultural Service Learning ...................................................... 225
Jeff Zimmerman, Northern Kentucky University, USA

Chapter 11
Deepening of Critical Thinking Skills through the Use of Civic Engagement ................................................................. 252
Marcia F. Hunter, Southwest Tennessee Community College, USA