Acknowledgment

The editors extend their sincere gratitude to all contributing authors for raising their views in form of chapters on every current important issue of environment in the present book. We would like to acknowledge the valuable contributions of all the reviewers who played a pivotal role in improving the quality and presentation of manuscripts. Our thanks go to all of the members of Editorial Advisory Board for their guidance and support in completion of this project.

The editors are extremely grateful to Prof. Alan S. Kolok and Prof. Sultan A. Ismail for writing foreword that helped in providing glimpse of the book. In the last, our special thanks go to the God for providing us strength and fortitude and also for giving this opportunity.
