Table of Contents

Foreword ........................................................................................................................................... xxi

Preface ................................................................................................................................................ xxii

Acknowledgment ................................................................................................................................ xxx

Section 1
Arts-Based Civic Engagement in School Settings

Chapter 1
Socially Engaged Art Education: Defining and Defending the Practice........................................ 1
   Ross H. Schlemmer, Southern Connecticut State University, USA

Chapter 2
Drawing in Kindergarten: The Link to Learning in Reading......................................................... 21
   Gretta Wright, LaGrange College, USA

Chapter 3
Collaboration, Teamwork and Service Learning within an After School Community Arts Project: After School Mural Arts Project ................................................................. 36
   Hazel L. Bradshaw-Beaumont, Delaware State University, USA

Chapter 4
Significant Spaces of Freedom Summer: Recognizing the Power of Community Art as the Inbetween.............................................................................................................................. 57
   Stephanie Harvey Danker, Miami University, USA
   Stephanie Baer, Miami University, USA

Chapter 5
Summer Art: Sustainable Community Engagement........................................................................ 78
   Karin Tollefson-Hall, James Madison University, USA

Chapter 6
The Los Angeles County Museum of Art at Charles White Elementary School ....................... 97
   Elizabeth Gerber, Los Angeles County Museum of Art, USA
Chapter 7
Creating Authentic Preservice Art Teaching Experiences through Service-Learning .................. 116
  Kathy Marzilli Miraglia, University of Massachusetts, Dartmouth, USA

Chapter 8
Surviving the Partnership: Sustaining a Culture of Engaged Learning in Design .................... 152
  Jennifer Barker, University of Memphis, USA
  Jennifer Thompson, University of Memphis, USA
  Pamela Hurley, University of Memphis, USA

Chapter 9
Connecting the Past and the Present: Using Our Deep History of Learning through Community
Art to Inform Contemporary Student Engagement ...................................................................... 167
  Carolina Eve Blatt-Gross, The College of New Jersey, USA

Chapter 10
Technology and Created Spaces: Reframing Interpretations of Public Art through Digital
Augmentation .......................................................................................................................... 192
  Justin Makemson, Belmont University, USA

Chapter 11
Promoting Civic Engagement through University Curricula ...................................................... 218
  Bryna Bobick, University of Memphis, USA

Section 2
The Role of Arts in Empowering Citizens

Chapter 12
Dewey, School Violence, and Aesthetic Response: Healing the Community through Arts after Disaster ..................................................................................................................................... 237
  Patricia Louise Maarhuis, Washington State University, USA
  A. G. Rud, Washington State University, USA

Chapter 13
New Voices and Narrative Participatory Photography: A Culturally Relevant Method for Intercultural Exchange .............................................................................................................. 267
  Ruth M. Smith, The Ohio State University, USA

Chapter 14
The Arts, Civic Engagement, and Urban Youth ......................................................................... 294
  Amy M. Grebe, ACPPA Community Art Center, USA

Chapter 15
Art Empowering At-Risk and Opportunity Youth: A Case Study of artworxLA ....................... 320
  Denise A. Gray, artworxLA, USA
Chapter 16
Engaging Communities through an Art Program at a Domestic Violence Shelter.............................. 339
Elzbieta T. Kazmierczak, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, USA

Section 3
A Global Perspective of Arts and Civic Engagement

Chapter 17
¡Adelante! El Mundo Mágico Creado, The Magical World Created: P-16 US Students Create an
International Collage between Cuba and USA ................................................................. 368
Miwon Choe, Western Kentucky University, USA
Juan Silvio Cabrera Albert, Crearte Project Director, Cuba

Chapter 18
Arts-Based Community Engagement in Singapore: Success Stories, Challenges, and the Way
Forward ............................................................................................................................................ 391
Justin Lee, National University of Singapore, Singapore
Jui Liang Sim, National University of Singapore, Singapore

Chapter 19
Overcoming Obstacles: The Creation of the Very First Art Museum in Portugal in the 19th
Century .............................................................................................................................................. 412
Emília Ferreira, Instituto de História da Arte (IHA), Universidade Nova de Lisboa, Portugal

Chapter 20
Watching the Walls Crumble: Conversation and Community-Building through a Weekly Youth
Art Workshop ......................................................................................................................... 434
Kira Hegeman, University of Georgia, USA

Section 4
Arts and Civic Engagement in Action

Chapter 21
Orchestrating Community Change through Music and Heritage: Soulsville USA ......................... 455
Charles A. Santo, University of Memphis, USA

Chapter 22
The Role of Collaboration to Encourage Civic Engagement through the Arts: The Blurring of the Government and Nonprofit Sectors .......................................................................................... 476
Tina Dippert, Portland State University, USA
Erna Gelles, Portland State University, USA
Meg Merrick, Portland State University, USA

Chapter 23
Art and Community Capacity-Building: A Case Study .............................................................. 499
Ferdinand Lewis, University of Groningen, The Netherlands
Eleanor K. Sommer, University of Florida, USA
Chapter 24
Crank It to Eleven: Music Festivals Breathe New Life into Cities ......................................................... 524
   Amelia A. Pridemore, Florida International University, USA

Chapter 25
A Foundation’s 20-Year Experiment in Art and Civic Engagement ....................................................... 544
   Frances Neff Phillips, Walter & Elise Haas Fund, USA

Chapter 26
HOWL for UWG: An Example of Artful Leadership for Art-Inspired Fundraisers on Campus ...... 567
   Clint Samples, University of West Georgia, USA

Chapter 27
From Conflict to Constructive Engagement: Mediating Public Art ....................................................... 590
   Beth Roy, University of California, USA

Compilation of References ........................................................................................................................ 604

About the Contributors ............................................................................................................................... 660

Index ....................................................................................................................................................... 668