Acknowledgment

I thank my wife Dr. Dhandu Rani Shakya, my son Ayush Shakya and daughter Ayusha Shakya for the patience and support during the development of this book. Without their consistent support this would have been impossible.

I want to thank and acknowledge the work of each of the authors that contributed the book. I thank their dedication, their patience, and their ideas that led this book to be a pillar of knowledge in e-Government Procurement (e-GP).

I thank my Editorial Advisory Board, and especially Dr. Paul Schapper and Dr. Khi Thai, who reviewed the chapters and provided comments and valuable suggestions for enhancing the quality of the book.
